

Testimonials

James Delaney – Catering Assistant Hodson Bay Hotel

“I like to work it makes me feel independent. I like working in the Hodson Bay Hotel because I learn new skills and tasks. Having a job is big in my life. IF you are looking for a job keep trying till you get one”.

Hodson Bay Hotel - Eoin Mannion Group HR and Talent Acquisition Manager

“James was represented professionally by the Work Links Roscommon Team. Inclusivity and diversity is a key aspect of how we interact with people in our Hotels. The Work Links Roscommon programme is a very important example of this. The message I would have for other businesses is get involved, reach out to organisation like Work Links Roscommon, and see what you can do to promote employability in your business”.

Stephen Donohue – Frenchpark and District Childcare

“The HR supports we got from Work Links Roscommon was invaluable to us. We worked with a fantastic HR specialist who was professional, patient and knowledgeable and addressed all of our queries and questions. We enjoyed working with both Work Links Roscommon and the HR specialist.

Roscommon LEADER Partnership

“We availed of the Disability Awareness Training from Work Links Roscommon 2024-2028. The sessions were informative and comprehensive. We especially liked the Lived Experience section where we got a glance of the difficulties people with disabilities encounter while looking for work. We would encourage all business to get Disability Awareness Training”.
